

The Suspects

Vivian LeSage

An adventurer at heart, Vivian is up for anything and is the life of the party. She loves to be daring, and will try anything once – some things twice! She seems to have skills not common to the average person, but when asked where she learned to do something in particular, she's very quick to change the subject and avoid the question all together. She is the one who has arranged this trip to The Floating Flower Oasis Spa, and loves to wear pretty, flowing floral dresses and luxurious up-do's.

Whitney Noble

Whitney Noble is an outdoor enthusiast who loves getting dirty. Gardening and painting are her hobbies of choice. She is a resourceful woman with an uncanny ability to inspire others to do things they wouldn't normally do. In spite of her love of getting dirty, she also has a penchant for shoes, and has a collection of stilettos that make her friends drool.

Olivia Blake

Olivia is the owner of The Floating Flower Oasis Spa, and is an entrepreneurial force! She works harder and longer than any of her staff, and in addition to owning the spa, plays an active, hands-on role in the business. Since starting The Floating Flower Oasis Spa she has personally served a wide array of people, from foreign princesses to celebrities. She is both glamorous and posh, and is always immaculately put together – some say reminiscent of Kate Middleton.

Elyse Catiana

Elyse is a vivacious woman whose presence is always known on account of her loud voice and infectious laugh. She is passionate, inspiring and invaluable to all those who have the pleasure of knowing her. Those who know her well insist she missed her calling as an actress, but the closest she gets to the stage is through her love of old movies – especially Film Noir and bank heist classics. She loves dressing like the 50's screen gems, and integrates their classic style into her everyday wardrobe.

Bianca Francesco

Bianca is both beautiful and intelligent – a double threat! She's incredibly articulate and a stunning conversationalist. Bianca is slightly guarded at times though, can be terse and short-tempered, especially before she gets to know someone. Her clothing is conservative and she never goes anywhere without her day planner, which is perceived as strange in today's modern, paperless world.

Calista Storm

Calista is a fearless and strong woman, ambitious and self-sufficient. She is incredibly observant, and upon entering a room, often notices things others would never see for themselves. For this reason, she is referred to as the "Sherlock" of the group, although she prefers to think of herself as more of a "surveillance" operative than a detective. She wears beautiful dresses underneath – what else? A classic feminine trench coat.
